Dear Ms. Hough:

This letter is in response to your letter of January 13, 2009 which included inquiries for 5 items.

1. There appeared to be two contributions from corporations, however, one was not.
  - a. Martinroc Management's check for $500.00 was not a contribution. It was payment for a trip to DC for the inaugural ceremonies. A check has been written to refund the payment. A copy of the refund check is attachment #1.
  - b. Carefree Excursions was not a contribution but a disbursement to pay for transportation to Indiana for individuals to campaign for Andre Carson. See attachment #5.
2. The excessive $2600.00 contribution from the National League of Postmasters PAC has been refunded and a copy of the refund check is attachment #2.
3. On Schedule A of my report, I indicated in the appropriate section that the contributions received after the General Elections were for payment of transportation to the inaugural ceremony in DC. They were not contributions for either election but payment for a service. I have changed the election category to other. There were also a three listed under 11a which I corrected.
4. Missing 48-hour notices.
